Expressions of Gratitude

The family of Dea. Jerry Lee Walley would like to express their deepest appreciation to friends and neighbors for their many flowers, prayers, cards, phone calls, visits and all acts of love and kindness during the death of our loved one. Our special thanks to Greater First Baptist Church Family, The Second Missionary Baptist Church Family, Pastor Richard Young, Rev. Johnnie Sims and Unity Funeral Home. Our prayer to God is that he will bless each of you as richly as you have blessed us. Please continue to keep us lifted up in your prayers, for only then can we continue to go through.

OBITUARY

II Timothy 4: 7-8

*I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.*

Jerry Walley was born in Leakesville, MS on May 17, 1946 to the late Leve C. and Jennie V. Walley (birthmother) and Mittie Walley. He departed this life on Sunday, February 17, 2013 in Pascagoula, MS.

He was a faithful member of Greater First Baptist Church of Escatawpa, MS where he served as a deacon and treasurer. He was an active member of the Magnolia High School Monarch Alumni Association, Class of 1965. He graduated from Jackson State University with a Bachelor's Degree in History and Political Science.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his brothers, Roy, Herbert and George Walley and three sisters, Eloise Walley, Hattie B. Denson and Cassie B. Walley.

He leaves to cherish his memories a wife, Icy Louise Tate Walley; two sons, Marshall Bates, Chicago, IL and Jerry (Ariel) Walley, Moss Point, MS; one daughter, Icy N. (Demetrious) Tolbert, Moss Point, MS; one devoted godson, Fredrick Hawkins, Alcorn, MS and one goddaughter, Tracie Corley, Ocean Springs, MS; one brother, Darrell Walley; three sisters, Gertie Hill, Knottown, MS, Ruth Webb, Chicago, IL and Kathy Hines, Channelview, TX; four grandchildren, Chadrick Tolbert, Icy M. Dad

My Father was a man who had smiles to brighten your days, who always made you feel good with his warm words of praise.

And what's more he knew what to do to make wishes come true.

He was my Father.

My Father was someone who always had good stories to tell, but just as importantly he knew how to be a good listener as well.

He was patient and kind and the very best friend you could ever hope to find.

He was no ordinary man.

And I'm proud to tell the world that he was my Father.

Rest In Peace

To The Children

Trust the Lord - Proverbs 3:1-4

*My son, don't forget my teachings, but let your heart keep my commands;
for they will bring you many days,
a full life, and well-being.*

Never let loyalty and faithfulness leave you.

*Tie them around your neck;
write them on the table of your heart.
Then you will find favor and high regard in the sight of God and man.*
