

Engineering until retiring four years ago. He was a member of Key Lodge No. 174 F. & A.M., Tripoli Shrine of Milwaukee, Kewaunee-Algoma Chapter No. 228 O.E.S., International Union of Operating Engineers Local No. 150 of Countryside, Ill. and the Congregational church. He also served in the C.B.s in the Pacific during World War II.

Survivors include his wife Elaine Olson Holmes; four sons, Johnny L. Holmes of Naperville, Ill., Stanley Holmes of Ponchatoula, La., Paul Hill of Oklahoma and James Holmes of Kewaunee; two daughters, Mrs. David (Dorothy Sue) Rouse of Baton Rouge, La. and Pdamela Vlies of Kewaunee; 13 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; two half-brothers, Cecil Terrell of Osyka and Robert Terrell of Milwaukee, Wis.

Jessie B. Dillon

Services for Mrs. Jessie B. Dillon of Summit will be 1 p.m. Thursday in Mitchell Chapel A.M.E. Church in Summit with the Rev. Herman Abram officiating and the Rev. Joseph Parker, pastor. Burial will be in Greenlawn Cemetery in Summit with Cook's Enterprise Funeral Home of McComb in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Dillon died Monday following a brief illness.

A retired teacher and member of Mitchell Chapel church, she was the daughter of Jesse Pinkney and Rebecca Halpine Leggett.

Survivors include her husband Charles T. Dillon Sr.; one sister Naomi McComb of Chicago, Ill.; one son Barry Dillon of Havre-de-Grace, Md.; two daughters, LaVerne Caroline of Champaign, Ill. and Bernette Steptoe of Birmingham, Ala. 8 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and a number of other relatives. Mrs. Dillon was preceded in death by a son Charles T. Dillon Jr.