I'VE DONE MY WORK

I've done my work, I've sung my song I've done some good, I've done some wrong, A id I shall go where I belong; The Lord has willed it so. He knows my heart and ev'ry thought, He knows what pain and joy I've brought; And by His love I shall be taught The way to him I know. He knows my soul so weak and blind, So full of fears of mortal mind, And He will lead, And I shall find the way to Him, I know. He guides my steps, and He knows best. He will not harm where he is blest. And so good-night, I'll take my rest, where sweet wild roses grow.

OBITUARY OF

EMMA MAE TATE TURNER

- After this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven; and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter. Revelation 4:1
- ☐ Yesterday, one we loved and knew stepped across the threshold that we call death. It was but a stepping into a room in our Father's house
- ☐ Emma Tate Turner was born in Amite County, Mississippi, on January 2, 1935 to the late Robert and Icy Tate. She was the former wife of the late Jessie C. Turner, Sr. Mother of 7 sons and 2 daughters.
- Emma accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Tickfaw Baptist Church in Liberty, Mississippi. She was educated in the public schools of Liberty, Mississippi. She placed her membership in Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church on March 14, 1982, where she served as a good christian soldier. She cooked and fed the hungry who came to the church every Wednesday, and was called "Ms. Emma". She served for many years on the Pastor's Anniversary Committee and worked where-ever she was asked to serve in the church. Sis. Turner was kind and polite to all who knew her, she continued to attend worship service even when she had to be brought in a wheel chair.

On Friday, May 31, 1996, at 10:24A.M., Emma Mae Tate Turner moved out of her old house into a brand new home. Her memory will forever live in the hearts and minds of those who knew and loved her. She was preceded in death by her parents, former husband, 3 sons, William, Mark and Darryl Turner, 1 stepson Johnny Lewis, 2 sisters and 5 brothers. She leaves to cherish her memory 4 sons; Arthur, Milton, Isaiah Turner and Robert Tate; 2 daughters, Ruby Garbaldi and Joyce Turner; stepchildren, Ruth and Naomi White; Joseph, R.C. and James Lewis; 1 brother, Frank Tate, 3 sisters, Ceola Williams, Mary Handy and Lola Bates, 3 daughters-in-law Janice, Patricia and Rose Turner, sons-in-law, Harang Garbaldi and C.C. Burden; sisters-in-law, Leah, Jessie Mae, Bobby Jean, Willie Mae and Mable Tate; brothers-in-law Larnell Bates, Sr and Marshall Bates, devoted friends Robert Williams and Roy Peterman; 20 grandchildren, 14 great-Grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
