OBITUARY

Mrs. Callie Mae Patterson was born August 21, 1914 in Magnolia, Ms to the union of Willie and Manerva Victoria Bates Stewart. She was a homemaker and lived on the family farm in Liberty, Ms

She accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Tickfaw Missionary Baptist Church in Amite County. She later joined Shady Grove Free Will Baptist Church and when she lived in Chicago, IL she attended Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church and Evening Star Missionary Baptist Church.

Mrs. Patterson found delight in her 12 children. She attended every graduation, wedding and gathering whether it was local or out of town. She was the family's historian and communicator, taking on the responsibility of keeping precious photos, as well as current addresses and phone numbers for family and friends which she often share with others from memory.

A great gardener, she also canned. Her cha cha (chopped cabbage, allspice and vinegar) was great with soul food dinners.

On September 22-24, 2001, Mrs. Patterson and her four surviving sisters were honored in the Amite and Pike counties in Mississippi with a series of events, including the re-dedication of their childhood home at 2611 Peoria Road, Liberty, Ms 39645. She enjoyed seeing the article in the Enterprise-Journal the following month.

On Wednesday, December 19, 2001 at 6:03 p.m., Mrs. Callie Mae Patterson was called home to be with the Lord..

She was preceded in death by her husband, James Monroe Patterson. They were married on Christmas 1932 and remained devoted to each other for 50 years.

Also, her parents, Willie and M.V. Stewart; two sons, Freddie Lewis and Lonnell Patterson; a daughter, Ernestine Patterson Mahone; five brothers, Willie Howard, Herbert Walter, Garrett, Charles and Leroy Stewart; two sisters, Mary Stewart Robins and Laura Stewart Thompson.

She leave to cherish her memories seven sons: Clifton C (Yvonne), Roosevelt, Matthew, Thomas O. (Brenda), Robert Earl (Denise), Herbert W. (Brenda) and Vernell (Mary) Patterson; two daughters, Sandra Patterson Chapman (Tony) and Rev. Jean H. Johnson all of Chicago; four sisters: Wilhelmenia Stewart Holden, Helen S. Haygood of Chicago; twins, Edna J. Scott of Magnolia and Etta A. Lee of Liberty, Ms; 47 grandchildren, great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
