

L.C. 'Curly' Butler

L.C. "Curly" Butler, 84, of Liberty, died June 5, 2013, at Liberty Community living Center.

Visitation is 5 to 7 p.m. Friday at Cook's Enterprise Funeral Home in McComb. Services are 11 a.m. Saturday at Brown Chapel Baptist Church, with the Rev. Skipper Cain, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Brown Chapel Cemetery.

1929-2013

Mr. Butler was born April 22, 1929, in Amite County, the son of Leroy Stewart and Minnie Butler Landry.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two stepdaughters, Blanche Brumfield and Earline Brown; and two grandsons, Ricky Ard and Roosevelt Brown III.

Survivors include his loving wife, Willie Mae Butler; 12 children, Claudia Butler, L.C. Butler, Trudy Butler, Judy Butler, Tiffany Butler, Joni Morris, Judy Jackson, Gregory Butler, Shelia Butler, Caprice Butler and Deborah Givens; a brother, Dexter Stewart; a sister, Beverly Funchess; 44 grandchildren; 57 great-grandchildren; 12 great-great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.