

Jessie I. Morgan

TYLERTOWN — Jessie Isaac Morgan, 89, of the Jayess community, died Wednesday in Southwest Mississippi Regional Medical Center in McComb after a brief illness. Visitation was underway today in Capps Funeral Home of Tylertown and will continue there at 9 a.m. Friday until services at 11 a.m. Friday in Capps chapel. The Rev. Hunter and the Rev. Walter Sisco will officiate and burial will be in Morgantown Cemetery near Columbia.

Born Feb. 17, 1896, in Lawrence County, Mr. Morgan was the son of Albert Morgan and Seaby Keen Morgan. A farmer, he was a veteran of World War I and a member of Church of God of Prophecy.

He was preceded in death by two sons, John P. Morgan and James Morgan; one daughter, Pauline Morgan; four brothers, Pink, Charlie, Lee and Marcus Morgan; and two sisters, Ada Wilks and Sally Fieghier.

Survivors include his wife, Tessie Morgan of Jayess; three daughters, Catherine Alexander of Jayess, Maudine Alexander of Summit and Yvonne Cook of Sliedell, La.; one son, Shelby Morgan of Jayess; one daughter-in-law, Jimmie Rae Morgan of Jayess; 18 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews; two brothers, Woodward Morgan and Richard Morgan, both of Jayess; two sisters, Myriene Coghan of Jayess and Emma Powell of Albany, La.

Pallbearers will be Mr. Morgan's grandsons-in-law, Mark Phipps, Dickie Barnett, Ike Stutzman, William Brent, Noah Boyd and Joey Moak. Honorary pallbearers will be George Reeves Jr., Danny Coon and Robert M. Edwards.

Aylene S. Mornhinveg

TYLERTOWN — Services for Aylene Simmons Mornhinveg, 84, a resident of Kentwood, La., and a former resident of the Simon community near Tylertown, were 2 p.m. today in Hartman-Hughes Funeral Home of Tylertown. Dr. Jim Woodward and the Rev. Billy Brumfield officiated and burial was in Tylertown Cemetery.

Mrs. Mornhinveg died Wednesday in Pike Memorial Hospital in Kentwood.

Born Aug. 12, 1901, in Tylertown, she was the daughter of James W. Simmons and Mardena Smith Simmons. The widow of Luther Mornhinveg, she operated Aylene's Photography Studio in Bogalusa, La., for 60 years before moving back to the Simon community a few years ago. She had been a Kentwood resident for about a year.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Purnice Roberts and Mrs. Wilkie Spurlock, both of Mount Hermon; and several nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were Duane Simmons, Horace Simmons, Phillip Roberts, Sammy Broyles, Lamar Montgomery and Denny Denman.

Phillip Daniels

Services for Phillip Daniels of the Bates community in Amite County will be 1 p.m. Saturday in Tickfaw Missionary Baptist Church with the Rev. Percy Veals officiating. Burial will be in Tickfaw Cemetery with People's Undertaking Co. of McComb in charge of arrangements. Mr. Daniels died Monday in the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Jackson after a lengthy illness.

Born in Green County, Ala., he was the son of the Rev. Will Daniels and Mary Eliza Jones Daniels. He was a retired Amite County agriculture teacher. An Army veteran of World War II, he was a member of the deacon's board at Tickfaw Missionary Baptist Church, the NAACP and several other civic organizations.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Willie Pearl Bates Daniels of the Bates community; two daughters, Dr. Delois Diane Daniels Rutledge of Detroit, Mich., and Dr. Vera Inez Daniels of Baton Rouge; two sisters, Mrs. Julia Daniels and Mrs. Mary Preston, both of Los Angeles, Calif.; one brother, Jehu Daniels of Los Angeles and three grandchildren.

Samuel E. Fant

LANCASTER, Calif. — Services for Samuel E. Fant, 66, a resident of Lancaster and a native of McComb, will be Friday in Lancaster. Mr. Fant died Tuesday in his Lancaster residence.

The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Fant of McComb, he was a retired Air Force colonel and a retired test pilot for Lockheed Aircraft Corp.

Survivors include his wife, Jane Walley Fant of Lancaster; two sons, Thomas Fant and Charles Fant, both of California; one daughter, Barbara Fant Johnson of California and one sister, Mary Louise Carson of Vicksburg.

Mattie Macbeth

TYLERTOWN — Services for Mrs. Mattie Macbeth of Franklinton, La., who died Wednesday in her home, were incomplete this morning with Hartman-Hughes Funeral Home of Tylertown in charge of arrangements.

Sandy Brock

TYLERTOWN — Sandy Brock of Tylertown died Wednesday in Walhalla County General Hospital. Services were incomplete this morning with Hartman-Hughes Funeral Home of Tylertown in charge of arrangements.

Daisy Martin

Mrs. Daisy Jackson McCray Martin, whose services were today in People's Undertaking Co. chapel, was also survived by her husband, Robert Martin of New Orleans, and several grandchildren. She was preceded in death by one brother, Johnny McCray Sr. This information was not previously supplied to the Enterprise-Journal.

M&H FURNITURE - V

No Interest For 12 Months
No Payments til April 1986

M&H FUR

The little store with the Free Delivery

249-31

THE DI

SPRING 1

The following is a tentative list of these or other courses, please attend the appropriate meeting, but informational numbers below. Class

PHILLIP DANIELS

Services for Phillip Daniels of the Bates community in Amite County were 1 p.m. Saturday in Tickfaw Missionary Baptist Church with the Rev. Percy Veals officiating. Burial was in Tickfaw Cemetery with People's Undertaking Co. of McComb in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Daniels died Feb. 10 in the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Jackson after a lengthy illness.

Born in Green County, Ala., he was the son of the Rev. Will Daniels and Mary Eliza Jones Daniels. He was a retired Amite County agriculture teacher. An Army veteran of World War II, he was a member of the deacon's board at Tickfaw Missionary Baptist Church, the NAACP and several other civic organizations.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Willie Pearl Bates Daniels of the Bates community; two daughters, Dr. Delois Diane Daniels Rutledge of Detroit, Mich., and Dr. Vera Inez Daniels of Baton Rouge; two sisters, Mrs. Julia Daniels and Mrs. Mary Preston, both of Los Angeles, Calif.; one brother, Jehu Daniels of Los Angeles and three grandchildren.